PRESIDENT’S MESSAGE

Summertime, an’ the livin’ is easy – Ira Gershwin

I hope everybody is enjoying the summer as much as I am. It’s been relatively cool, great for working in the yard. If you’re out for a walk in the neighborhood be sure to stop by the Commons, lots of blossoms and greenery.

The Annual Meeting was held in May. Our speaker was Brooke Hardin, the Director of Community Development and Planning with the City. He described the many, many projects in the works around the City, several of which I had not heard about. There was a spirited debate about a couple proposed amendments to the CCHCA bylaws. The swearing-in ceremony for the 2019 CHCA Board was performed by our neighbor and City Council member, Jennifer Passey. Thanks to everybody who took time out of their schedule to attend. Much appreciated.

Many neighbors have stepped up recently to lend a hand with CCHCA. Leslie Culen has taken over Publications. Nate Hussell has agreed to serve as VP of Social Activities. Jennifer Hanks has taken over as VP of Block Captains. The Garden Club as a collective will be handling Community Appearance. Steven Lane will be heading-up a special committee to update the CCHCA Bylaws. Maria Donahue will be taking care of publication of the CCH Directory. CCHCA does not exist without many helping hands. A big thank you to all.

You may have noticed the new stop signs on Farmington. The City utilizes the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Official (AASHTO) standards to determine whether an intersection warrants a stop sign. Based on those standards, the City concluded that stop signs were required. CCHCA also worked with the City Parking Enforcement to stop the illegal parking on Pinehurst close to the high school.

The never-ending work on the Commons has continued. We planted a fairly large Black Gum, which will add some major color in the Fall. We also planted a new Diane Witch Hazel and a Shamrock Holly, as well as many, many other smaller plantings. During the work day held in May a ton of mulch was spread and a lot of weeding done. We’ll be having other work day soon - don’t miss your chance to be a part of the solution.

Plans are underway for the Labor Day picnic. Mark your calendars. It will be held on September 2nd, 4 to 7 pm.

CCHCA is also working with the City to inquiry about all the power outages in the neighborhood. Stay tuned.

Google-Group Guidelines 2019

Posting: cchca@googlegroups.com

To join our CCHCA Google-Groups please email: ggmoderator@cchca.org or ggmoderator2@cchca.org

Please Note: Only members of the CCH Civic Association have the privilege to post messages. A non-member resident is allowed one posted message, and shall be reminded of the Google-Group guidelines, and invited to join CCHCA.

The Google group is a valuable service to our neighborhood. The primary role of the Google group is to provide the CCHCA a quick and efficient means of communication to a large majority of households on matters of importance to the neighborhood.

The guidelines strike a balance between accommodating individual requests to reach neighbors while maintaining the Association's ability to reach as many residents as possible quickly. From past experience, overuse of the Google group for individual needs can cause some neighbors to unsubscribe in turn reducing the overall effectiveness of the group as a means of communication.

The following guidelines shall be used when posting and responding to Google group messages:

1. Limit topics to pertinent local information of interest to CCH residents
2. Do not post the City's routine message, which are included in its many public publications
3. Provide email address for replies; phone numbers are optional. Do not include business/company signatures or footers or any marketing.
4. Post only one message per event/issue. Combine several messages into one post. For CCHCA and Historic Blenheim events more than one post is permitted.
5. Post items for sale by CCH residents excluding items belonging to third parties or commercial entities.
6. Reply to posted email address if shown in the message, otherwise click on "reply", NOT "reply all."

7. Do not post:

"Thank you", "Good job!", "Dog/cat has been found" or "Item no longer available" messages but reply to each responder individually.

Charity solicitations, political, religious, sexual and commercial messages.

Messages on behalf of non-CCHCA member or items for sale or rent outside the limits of the CCH community.

8. Please visit our website for recommended contractors, pet and babysitters before requesting recommendations via the Google-Group
9. Please consider using the community facebook page for communications that do not fall within these guidelines.

All messages are screened by the moderators before group delivery to assure adherence to these guidelines. The moderators make the final decision. If approved, your message will be usually posted within one hour but extend 12 hours, however, the moderators cannot guarantee posting by a certain time.

If you have any questions or are uncertain about something you would like to post, please contact the group moderators at <mailto:ggmoderator@cchca.org> Suggestions for revision and appropriateness will be offered. Concerns about these guidelines can be brought to the moderators or the President at: president@cchca.org

The Bottom Line: Our goal is to keep your CCHCA Google-Group a useful tool. Please help by being selective with your postings. Thank you. ggmoderator@cchca.org ggmoderato2@cchca.org

What's Going on in Fairfax!

VP, Civic Affairs, Hildie Carney,

Summer activities continue in the City: Thursday's: City band performs at the Amphitheater, Friday's: Movies at Van Dyck Park and at Sherwood Center. Rock the Block Friday night at Old Towne Park.

Community Farmer's Market every Saturday and Sunday.

Come indoors on these hot hot days and join the tours at Ratcliffe-Allison-Pozer house from 11-2 every Saturday thru October: Blenheim Civil War Center every day at 1PM as well as interesting lectures on Saturday's and Sunday's at the Fairfax Museum.

 (google the City website for times, or check the Cityscene, and locations for the above)

Development wise: new development on the "Surf Shop- (Old Lee Highway). Plans are underway for a restaurant after the original building is razed. Historic Fairfax City, Inc. is lobbying the City to make sure the design of the new building adheres to the Historic Overlay design of the Historic block.

Other developments of note are several proposals pending in the "downtown" area. Have your voice heard on these developments by finding out from the Council details, and public hearings for citizen input.

Members. Are you planning a yard sale? Let your neighborhood know by posting a message on our CCH-Google-Newsgroup; send your communication to: groups@cchca.org

Looking for a baby sitter, pet sitter or walker?

UPCOMING EVENTS

Work Day at the Commons - Sat Aug.10 9:00 am

We will be holding a work day down at the Commons on Saturday, August 10th starting at 9:00 am.

We will be spreading mulch, pulling weeds, planting some new plants. The Commons is looking better than ever, come be a part of the effort. We could REALLY use some help, many hands make light work. Stay as long as you can, every bit helps.

Bring any gardening tools you have:

- gloves
- shovel
- wheelbarrow
- garden cart
- bucket

Or anything else that might be helpful. Also, bring some water, it could be hot.

The Labor Day Picnic is coming! Monday, September 2 from 4-7pm. The event will be held in The Commons! More details to come as we get closer to the date. We hope to see everyone there!

CCH WEBSITE

Have you visited the CCHCA Website lately? The front page now consists of "featured posts", which we've been using (mostly) to point out CCHCA or City-related events coming in the near future. The menus have also been reorganized a bit. It's always a work in progress but it's getting better all the time.

Are you a member of CCHCA (hint)? If you're not sure, check the Current Members page. If you don't see your name then your membership has expired. You can join on-line (hint, hint). You can also make a donation to help out CCHCA from the same page. Donations can be earmarked for the Commons or Social Activities.

We recently added a calendar, which will hopefully make it easier to find out what's happening in CCHCA.

New residents might not be aware of all the information about the history of CCH available on the website. See the History tab towards the upper-right. Directories, newsletters, flyers, pictures, newspaper articles from as far back as the 50s can be viewed. Kind of fun to check out. Thanks to Ernie Klimonda for working so hard to preserve those memories.

Digging Through CCH History

History, according to Winston Churchill, is written by the victors. It can also apparently be written by the CCH Historian, a role I took on a year or so but have sadly neglected until recently. Although I have managed to fulfill one of the chief responsibilities of the historian, that of taking several cardboard boxes from someone else's basement and putting them in my basement. Today, for some reason, I am inspired to dig more deeply into these boxes, and share with you what I find.

There's a treasure trove of stuff from the mid-1960s, all neatly stored in plastic sleeves and binders, saved by some archivally minded neighbor. A few random nuggets:

A vehicle bridge connecting Spring Lake Terrace to Route 50 was proposed in 1968, according to a special color issue, including a hand-drawn map, of the Country Club Hills News that urged citizens to SPEAK UP NOW! Apparently they were heard loud and clear, as no bridge was ever built.

CCH purchased a mimeograph machine in July 1963, to speed up the production of newsletters, according to the CCH Bulletin of that month, presumably cranked out on said machine. The bulletin was written by then vice-president Armistice Turtora, a long-time CCH resident who passed away at the age of 90 last year, who was still active when we moved to the neighborhood in 2000. Armistice (born November 11, hence the name), the first chairperson of the city's Parks and Recreation Board, was honored for her work when the city named the field at Van Dyck Park for her.

The average expenditure per pupil in Fairfax County was $489 in 1966 (it is $14,767 today), according to a bound report under the name of E.C Funderburk, superintendent of schools.

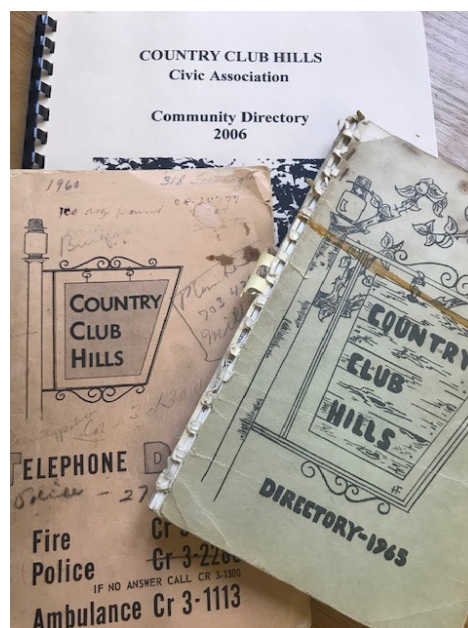

Mr. and Mrs. John Veger of 305 Springlake Terrace won first place in the outdoor lighting contest in 1964, for which they were awarded $8.00 (worth $65 today), noted on a perfectly preserved flyer.

CCH used to have a Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. Elizabeth Todd was president in 1965, according to that year's typed and hand-illustrated directory. There is no mention of what used to happen on Tuesday afternoons.

Let's see — what else is in here. Digging a little deeper ...

In the 1980s, the newsletter was renamed Echoes From the Hills, with the word "echoes" repeated in smaller and smaller type, fading away like an echo — apparently a forerunner to today's eCCHO. Joe and Marge Herrmann won the "beauty spot of the month" in April 1986, as noted in an article by Arlene Desmarais, president of the CCH Garden Club.

The Echo/Eccho "logo" has apparently changed at least 20 times since 2004 — as each new editor says "to hell with 'brand compliance'; I finally get to do it my way."

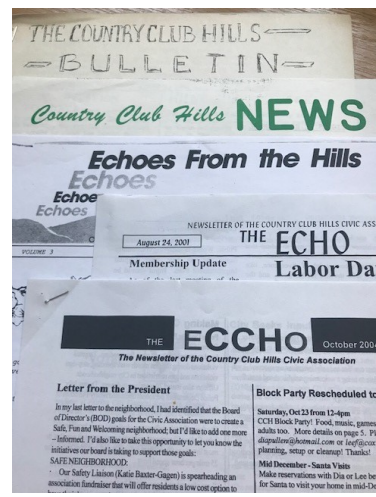

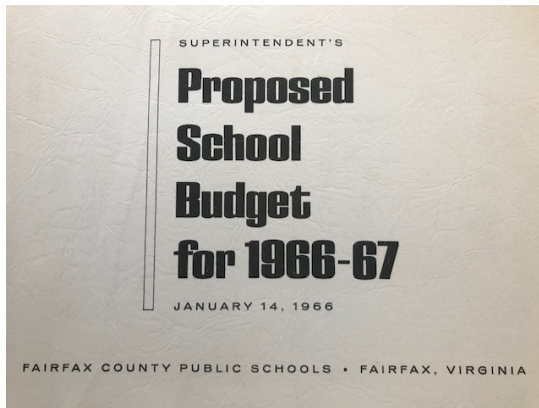

Hildie Carney (still a resident of CCH, who appears not to have changed a bit) was nominated as Mrs. United States Navy, 1956, according to a clipping from the newsletter of the US Naval Air Station, Pensacola. The clip also notes that Hildie was an “avid water skier.”

It’s interesting to go through the old directories and see what names you recognize. Some people have lived here a really long time.

I also found a few things with personal connections. A picture of my kids (now college-aged) as toddlers at a picnic on the Commons. Photos of us and other early 2000s-era new CCHers planting trees that are now 20 feet tall. A directory from 2004, with assistance from membership VP Jill Toth and original cover art by Michelle Rummel. A newsletter I did in May 2002 (the very first “eCCHo”). It makes you feel old when you root through “History” boxes and find things you were part of, like when you see a lunchbox or board game you used to own in an antique store. But it also makes you feel like part of a community that has some pretty deep roots. And with nearly 20 years in Country Club Hills now, I guess we are starting to become part of that history.

I invite anyone who wants to, to stop by and have a look through the boxes. And if you have anything you want to contribute – please let me know.

Power Outages

As everyone is very aware, CCH has recently experienced a series of extended power outages. CCH has a long history of power issues going back many decades. CCHCA has been in contact with the Mayor, the City Manager, and members of the City Council about the issue. The City has pledged to work with the power company to come up with a plan. They promised to get back to us on next steps. CCHCA will continue to inquire with the City on progress and report back to the neighborhood.

Beauty Spot of July

This July many CCH neighbors have creatively decorated their landscapes with patriotic stars and stripes and richly colored flowers just in time for holiday visitors. At 3420 Park Hill Place, Pam and Steve Caruso have made major changes to their landscape giving it a new look. The Country Hills Garden Club chooses their ambitious DIY garden project as the Beauty Spot of the Month. The updated design has kept several established plants in place. Curbside barberry and crepe myrtle bushes define the front edge of the garden. Beyond these, a hillside rises to mature holly and azalea bushes and a sturdy maple tree close to the house. After their research for plants of differing foliage, flowering displays, and growth habits, the Caruso's added rows of hardy evergreens, perennials, and ground covers to prevent hill erosion and to ensure eye-catching colors season to season. During this month, their front yard shows off many of Virginia's best-loved flowers, including the scarlet rose, lavender hosta, mauve hydrangea, blue spiderwort, pink crepe myrtle, creamy sweetspire, and orange daylily. A new flagstone path leads to more visual delights in the lower side yard. At a tranquil corner, an American flag unfurls in summer breezes and butterflies flutter near pale purple blooms on a buddleia bush. Much pleased with their accomplishments, Pam and Steve say their dream garden is still a work in progress. They won't be hanging up their garden hoses and tools yet!

Respectfully submitted,

Anita Johnson and Nancy LeBow

Tidbits for the Newsletter?

Have you got something you want to share about Fairfax City or our neighborhood? Perhaps you know of a special event, or activity for children that would be worth sharing! Maybe a new baby has arrived and you'd like to share your news with us! If so, please send an email to Leslie Cullen at izzy1978@gmail.com. We are always looking for our residents to participate in our newsletter.

Block Captain's Corner:

Hello Neighbors. I'd like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as a new member of the Board, as well as Director of the Block Captain Team. My name is Jennifer Hanks, and I've lived in CCH with my husband, Sam, since January 2013. We have three children ages 10, 6 and 4 years old. Before moving here, I had never lived anywhere longer than three years. Crazy! Planting roots in this neighborhood has been a truly positive experience of which I had never imagined, so I'm thrilled to help out my community in this capacity.

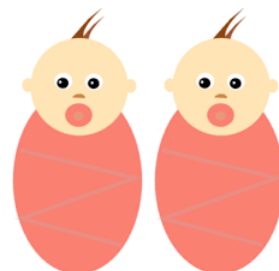

In looking forward to connecting with all of the current Block Captains, I would like to go ahead and thank you all in advance for your contributions to our little home base on Planet Earth.

On that note, I would like to give thanks to all volunteers, past and present, who have helped make Country Club Hills such a nice place to live. Everything from social events, moms' group, gardening club, upkeep of The Commons, spring cleanup, informational website, city representation, quarterly newsletter, Santa visits, to the little free library and so much more... We truly have it made.

Please feel free to reach out to me at jenhanks71@gmail.com.

See you 'round the block!

Please join the CCHCA Board of Directors in welcoming twins to Nate Hussel and his wife, Rachel! Congratulations!

COUNTRY HILLS GARDEN CLUB

Country Hills Garden Club will have its first meeting of the 2019-2020 year on September 10. Our program will be on Sustainable Gardening. We will visit Pat Sawhney's garden sanctuary in Annandale. Her property has extensive landscaping and other waster remediation efforts to successfully mitigate water runoff from the road, including the swale in the back yard. The back yard features shade tolerant plants, including many purchased from the annual NVSCCD Native Seedling Sales of past years. Her site uses no chemicals or pesticides and is a Certified Wildlife Habitat. If you are interested in joining our garden club and attending this program, please meet at 9:30 in front of Betty Crawford's home at 3415 Andover Drive. For further information, contact Nancy LeBow at 703-278-8663.

HORTICULTURE TIPS:

(1). Fall is fast approaching. Buy some spring blooming bulbs and pansies to plant in large pots outdoors. Put eight or so bulbs in potting soil in the lower third of the pot, cover with an inch of potting soil and sprinkle with a little medicated foot powder (any brand will do) if you have squirrels or rabbits. Continue filling the pot with soil and top with the pansies. Place in a sunny spot and watch the pansies bloom all fall and winter and the bulbs pop through them in the spring. You can also do this using several varieties of bulbs that you plant at different levels in the pot for multiple height, kinds and colors of flowers next spring. Because of the cold winters the last few years, in November wrap the pots in bubble wrap or burlap tied with string. Water after planting and occasionally throughout the winter to prevent the pansies from drying out. Do not overwater or the bulbs will rot.

(2) Try planting hyacinths among other flowers and shrubs to deter deer from browsing. They have a long bloom time and like a number of other plants they emit an odor that the deer do not like.

COUNTRY HILLS GARDEN CLUB

The Country Hills Garden Club (CHGC) has been active since 1956. We promote beautiful lawns and gardens within Country Club Hills through our "Beauty Spot of the Month" award. The Beauty Spot committee spends a significant amount of time determining the monthly award. The winner is announced in the CCHCA-Yahoo-Group.

The CHGC is a member of the National Capital Area Garden Clubs, Inc. We have completed many projects over the years and continue to seek out new challenges. You will find a review of the CHGC activities over the years on our CCHCA web page. You can also read about the long CHGC history, view the Garden Club Photo Album and enjoy past Beauty Spots of the month.

We currently have 15 active members and invite interested neighbors to attend any of our meetings. Our meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month. I will be more than happy to talk to you and answer any questions you have regarding our club. My contact info is:

Lock Your Car

Leaving your doors and windows unlocked is just what a thief is looking for and makes it easy to steal your property or your car.

Even if you are leaving your car for "just a minute," lock it. A minute is all a thief needs to walk away with your valuables.

Take Your Keys

Take your keys with you. Don't give a thief the opportunity to steal your car. Don't be tempted to hide a spare key in or around the car, and take the valet key out of your car.

Thieves know all the tricks and hiding places.

Hide Your Valuables

"Out of Sight, Out of Mind" and "Better Safe than Sorry" is good cautionary advice.

Leaving valuables in plain sight only tempts a thief looking for the next victim.

Don't leave items such as GPS units, cell phones, cameras, MP3 players, laptop computers, purses, wallets and other valuables in your car.

If you must leave valuables in your car, such as when you're traveling, make sure things are hidden before you get to your destination. After all, it doesn't do much good to hide your valuables if the thief watches you and then waits for you to leave your car before breaking in.

It sounds simple, but you really can fight crime every day just by locking your car, taking your keys, and hiding your valuables.

It will make the City of Fairfax an even better and safer community and it may save you a lot of time, aggravation and money.

The best way to fight crime is to prevent it from happening in the first place.

Don't become a victim!

If you see suspicious activity, report it immediately to police at (703) 385-7924.
